

Minutes of Grievance Hearings

Hearing opened at 9:57 Tuesday June 16, 2015.

Mrs. Tripodi, indicated that an error occurred when she filled her HS122 and that she had contacted the State about the issue. Waiting to hear from the State on Status of her appeal.

Debra Catherman, questioned her notice regarding business use of an outbuilding and also whether her barn could be considered personal property.

Leon Attwood, did not keep his appointment nor did he provide any support for his grievance.

Julia Tatro, questioned her assessed value based upon her recent purchase of the property.

John Waldo of Green Mountain House to Home question his land value based upon the size of the lot and its useable area.

Reed De Remer, questioned her assessed value based upon her recent purchase of the property.

Mrs. Maass, questioned the value of her property considering recent sales within her neighborhood.

Catherine Gemmiti, questioned her assessed value based upon her recent purchase of the property.

Emily Pickett, indicated that her yard had been torn up because of a neighbors under ground utilities that limited the use of her property. She also, indicated that her interior was dated and not properly reflected on the CAMA Card.

Kathleen Langlois, claimed that her dwelling at 49 Gorham Bridge Road did not have any value because of it interior was destroyed by water damage.

Hearing Recessed at 4:00 on 6/16/2015. Hearing reopened at 8:30 on 6/26/2015 and the immediately closed.